At a pharmacy, a woman asked to use the infant scale to weigh the baby she held in her arms. The clerk explained that the device was out for repairs, but said that she would figure the infant's weight by weighing the woman and baby together on the adult scale, then weighing the mother alone and subtracting the second amount from the first.

"That won't work," countered the woman. "I'm not the mother, I'm the aunt."

Two elderly women were trying on shoes in our store. When I slipped a shoe onto one woman's foot, the end of my tie got caught beneath her heel.

Unaware of my predicament, she stood up and started toward the mirror. For a few seconds, I found myself crawling along the floor beside her, trying to get her attention.

"Look, Martha," her friend said.

"He wants to go home with you!"

Bill: Waiter, this coffee tastes old and weak!

Waiter: You shouldn't complain, sir. Someday you'll be just like that yourself.

An Army private filling out a questionnaire for a correspondence course was stymied by the question,

"How long has your present employer been in business?" He thought for a moment, and then wrote, "Since 1776."

"A life spent making mistakes is not only more honorable but more useful than a life spent doing nothing."

Jim: Waiter, you just spilled water all over my brand-new suit!
Waiter: Don't worry. It was much too big anyway.

The young couple invited their aged parson for Sunday dinner. While they were in the kitchen preparing the meal, the minister asked their son what they were having.

"Goat," the little boy replied.

"Goat?" replied the startled man of the cloth, "Are you sure about that?"

"Yep," said the youngster. "I heard Pa say to Ma, 'Might as well have the old goat for dinner today as any other day.'"

Her teenage son was having trouble mastering the fine points of balancing his new bank account. "The bank returned the check you wrote to the sporting goods store," she said.

"Oh good," he said, "Now I can use it to buy some stereo equipment!"

The Ann Arbor News crime column reported that a man walked into a Burger King in Ypsilanti, Michigan at 8:50 a.m., flashed a gun and demanded cash.

The clerk turned him down because he said he couldn't open the cash register without a food order. When the man ordered onion rings, the clerk said they weren't available for breakfast.

The man, frustrated, walked away.

Tom was so excited about his promotion to Vice President of the company he worked for and kept bragging about it to his wife for weeks on end. Finally she couldn't take it any longer, and told him, "Listen, it means nothing, they even have a vice president of peas at the grocery store!"

"Really?" he said. Not sure if this was true or not, Tom decided to call the grocery store.

A clerk answers and Tom says "Can I please talk to the Vice President of peas?" The clerk replies, "Canned or frozen?"

Dumb and Dumber rented a boat and fished in a lake every day. One day they caught 30 fish. Dumb said to Dumber: "Mark this spot so that we can come back here again tomorrow." The next day, when they were driving to rent the boat, Dumb asked Dumber if he had marked the fishing spot. Dumber replied, "Yeah, I put a big X on the bottom of the boat."

Dumb replied, "You stupid fool! What if we don't get that same boat today!!!?"

A little girl was talking to her teacher about whales. The teacher said it was physically impossible for a whale to swallow a human because, even though, it was a very large mammal its throat was very small. The little girl stated that Jonah was swallowed by a whale. Irritated, the teacher reiterated that a whale could not swallow a human; it was physically impossible. The little girl said "When I get to heaven I will ash Jonah". The teacher asked, "What if Jonah went to hell?" The little girl replied, "Then you ask him."

I am five feet, three inches tall and pleasingly plump. Recently, after I had a minor accident, my mother accompanied me to the emergency room. The ER nurse asked for my height and weight, and I responded in a serious tone. "Five-foot-eight, 125 lbs While the nurse pondered this information, my mother leaned over to me, "Sweetheart," she gently chilled. "This is not the internet."

This guy was pulled over for running a stop sign. When the cop checked the man's driver's license, he said, "You're wearing glasses on your ID and you're not now. I'm going to have to give you a ticket for that."

The guy said, "Officer, I have contacts."

"Look, buddy," the cop said, "I don't care who you know. I'm giving you a ticket."

An elderly lady would stand on her front porch and shout "PRAISE THE LORD!"

Next door to her lived an atheist who would get so angry at her proclamations he would shout, "There ain't no Lord!!"

Hard times set in on the elderly lady, and she prayed for GOD to send her some assistance. She stood on her porch and shouted "PRAISE THE LORD. GOD I NEED FOOD!! I AM HAVING A HARD TIME. PLEASE LORD, SEND ME SOME GROCERIES!!"

The next morning the lady went out on her porch and noted a large bag of groceries and shouted, "PRAISE THE LORD."

The neighbor jumped from behind a bush and said, "Aha! I told you there was no Lord. I bought those groceries, God didn't."

The lady started jumping up and down and clapping her hands and said, "PRAISE THE LORD. He not only sent me groceries, but He made the devil pay for them. Praise the Lord!"

A sailor limped into a naval hospital to have his foot x-rayed, and was asked to wait for the results. Some time later an orderly appeared and handed the sailor a large pill. Just then a mother with a small child in need of immediate attention entered. After the orderly disappeared with the new patient, the sailor hobbled over to get a glass of water, swallow the pill, and sat down to wait. Some time later the orderly reappeared carrying a bucket of water. 'OK,' he said, 'let's drop the pill in this bucket and soak the foot.'
